TEMPE, June 16.—Many people were disappointed over the failure of the band to put in its appearance yesterday afternoon, but the good news for all is the assurance that they will give a concert in Tempe tonight from 8 to 9 o'clock. The delay was due to a wreck which brought them into Phoenix an hour late. The concert will be as announced yesterday, at the city hall plaza, without charge. From here the band goes to Mesa, where they will give a concert, returning to take the evening train for Tucson.

A Matter of Personal Privilege

There exists an unfair prejudice against the advertising dentist. It is sedulously fostered by the "ethical" dentists who, generally, maintain that the advertiser is lacking in skill and for that reason must advertise to get any business. As a matter of fact, there are skillful and unskillful men in both classes. The difference between them lies solely in the attitude they hold towards the public. I believe I can best serve the public and my own interests by advertising. The "ethical" men hold the contrary view so far as they are concerned. I was, at one time, on their side of the fence and am acquainted with their feelings and their contentions. At that time, I was so highly esteemed by them that I was enabled to partake of many honors they were pleased to bestow upon me. I was made president of the Nebraska Dental Association and later enjoyed the honors of the office of Secretary of the New Jersey Association of Dentists. Such offices are not bestowed upon quacks and incompetents.

I hold their unqualified certificate of competence. My advertising has in no way lessened my ability as a dentist.

ARIZONA'S OWN TO ENTERTAIN MESANS WITH MUSIC TODAY

MESA, June 16.—The band of the 158th infantry will be in Mesa this afternoon for a concert, which will be given from 5 to 6 o'clock. A wreck on the Santa Fe delayed the coming of the band yesterday until too late to make either the Mesa or Tempe engagement.

The plan as arranged, is for a concert to be given at Tempe from 2:30 to 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, then artists from that town will bring the men to Mesa for the concert here. At 6:30 o'clock the Commercial club and city council will entertain them at supper at the American kitchen and Mesa autos will deliver them later to Tempe where they take the 9 o'clock night train for Tucson.

The town was filled with people yesterday from the tributary country and from the surrounding towns, and since there was no definite information to give out, they went away disappointed. However, the present arrangement has been given to all the papers and it is presumed that the majority of the people will be made cognizant of the band's coming. The concert will be in the Tabernacle.

Mesa's Need of a Park

No more frequent expression of the town's needs is heard, than that Mesa needs a park for purposes of public gathering and recreation. The town has a ten-acre tract not more than four blocks from the business center, that has on it a number of trees but would need a number more for sufficient shade, and it has been suggested that this place be put into proper shape and trees planted. Other suggestions have been to the effect that the town sell this ten acres or trade it for a smaller tract closer in, and fit the latter up for park purposes, a small close in place where tourists and strangers might find shade and seats. The need has been brought forcibly to notice since the war began as Mesa is utterly without a shady grove where the trees are thick enough for a daylight audience in the summer months.

John Doe, Et Al, Get in Bad

Four Mesa men, whose faces are rather familiar to the average citizen, but whose names, as given to his honor, Judge Kingsbury, do not appear on the great register, got in bad with the law when officer Pickens stole silently upon them Friday night, in an upstairs room and disturbed a most enticing game of poker. The four made their appearance in Kingsbury's court and brought a smile from his honor when they insisted it was vitally necessary that their wives learn nothing of their sad estate. Believing that all guilty men should receive public condemnation their names as given to the court are here made known, to wit: John Doe, Richard Roe, Jim Toot and Tom Foe. It may be noted that these last two are a recent American addition to the Doe and Roe, who can be found even in the pages of Blackstone. It cost them $10 each, and they are all agreed to be nice boys in the future.

Cecil Pruitt on Furlough

Cecil Pruitt, son of Judge and Mrs. J. W. Pruitt, is home on furlough from Camp Kearny, where he is holding down the position of clerk of the divisional exchange because he is not physically in a position to go to France, where every other man of his company has already started.

Young Pruitt was ill in the hospital a good part of his time at the camp, and although he is now well, he is not in a condition to join the rest of his company.

Wreck Delays Speaker

Sergeant Raynor, who was to have spoken in Mesa at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, arrived early in the afternoon from Ray, where he spoke on the preceding night. He states that he made the first part of the trip on the stage, but that the roads are in bad condition and several break downs made impossible his coming to keep his engagement. A gentleman whose name he could not recall, met the stage about 20 miles out from Mesa and although journeying in the opposite direction, turned round and made a strenuous effort to land the speaker here on time. Sergeant Raynor will speak at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the tabernacle. It will be noted that this is one hour before the band concert, so that people coming to hear him may not have to wait long for the musical part of the day's program.

To Flagstaff to Summer School

Miss Roxie Brimhall left yesterday morning for Flagstaff Normal where she will enter the summer term.

At the Churches

St. Marks Episcopal—Sunday school at 9:45 o'clock. Evening services at 8:20 o'clock on the church lawn. Subject, "Some Necessities for the Successful Waging of the War." The public cordially invited. F. Bloy, pastor.

Latter Day Saints—Sunday school at 10:30 o'clock. Preaching service at 12:15 o'clock in all wards. Combined M. I. A. patriotic service and priesthood meeting at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

Boys Are Entertained

The members of the United States Boys' Working Reserve encamped at Mesa were treated to an ice cream and cake social last Wednesday evening by Mrs. Dwight B. Heard of Phoenix and the boys desire to express their sincere thanks through The Republican to Mrs. Heard for her kindness.

The reserve organization now has enrolled 429 boys in Maricopa county. Of this number 25 are working at Mesa, 80 are enrolled in the industrial unit and are employed in machine and printing shops and other industrial plants in Phoenix, while 197 boys are working on ranches owned by their folks.

CORPORATION BOARD TO SIT AT THATCHER

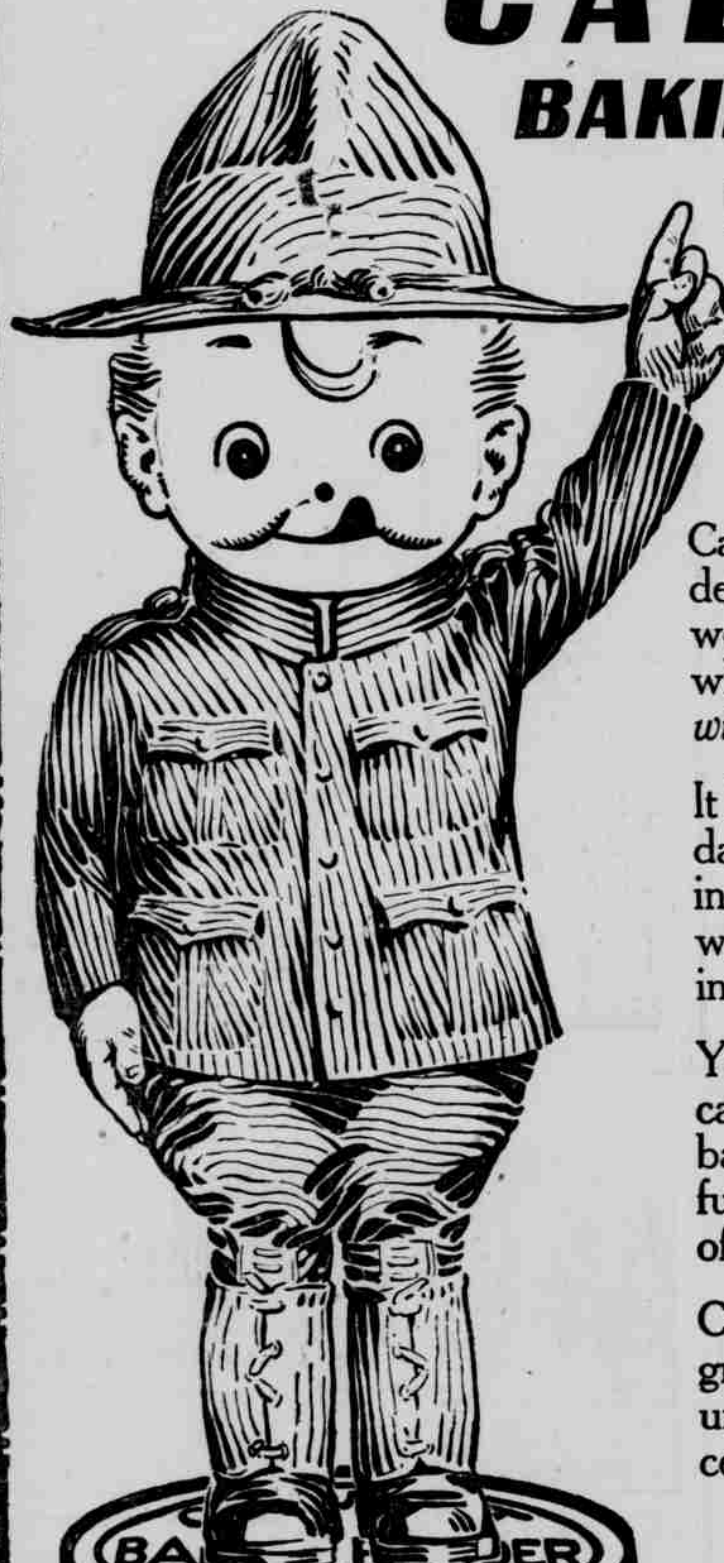

The state corporation commission will leave Phoenix today for Thatcher where Monday it will hold a hearing on the complaint of citizens of Thatcher that the water service of that town is inadequate. On the following day the commission will go to Metcalf where another water service complaint will be investigated. Two hearings will be held at St. Johns, Apache county, this week. One concerns a complaint against the electric light service and another the service of the water company.
